(f) DELEGATIONS (Item 6)

(i) Brian Sibley, Executive Director, Hamilton East Kiwanis Non-Profit Homes Inc. respecting a Proposal to Leverage Section 95 Properties to Create New Affordable Housing (Item 6.1)

Brian Sibley, Executive Director, Hamilton East Kiwanis Non-Profit Homes Inc. addressed Committee regarding a proposal to leverage Section 95 properties to create new affordable housing. The presentation included, but was not limited to, the following:

- Organizational Profile
- Mortgage Expiry Dates
- Long-Term Organizational Assessment:
 - Crisis of Equity – Assets value approximately $150 million which cannot be leveraged, and outstanding mortgages total $38 million
 - Crisis of Reserve Fund Allocation – Maintenance of units requires three times the current capital reserves, and current rate of expenditure, the reserve fund will be depleted within two years
 - Crisis of Segmentation – There are five different reserve funds for specifically assigned portfolios. The annual reserve shortfall for MMAH portfolios is $380,000, but across all portfolios it is only $38,000 annually
 - Crisis of Funding – Kiwanis Homes' Hamilton properties are solely funded by the City of Hamilton. Budgeting is based on responding to externally imposed values and deferring work until it is absolutely necessary
 - Crisis of Infrastructure – No new developments in approx. 20 years, and all investment has been limited to repair and maintenance of existing facilities (some of which are more than 25 years old)

- Crisis of Revenue Generation – Alternative revenue sources are limited as all new tenants must be taken from the ATH centralized waiting list
- Affordable Housing as a Viable Option to Rent-Geared-to-Income
- Feasibility of Development of New Affordable Housing Properties
 - First Time Affordable Home Buyers Program
 - Sale of Units at Market Value
 - Remortgage of Properties
 - Private/Non-Profit Development Partnership
 - Variations on a Theme:
 - Community Land Trust
 - Donation of Land by the City of Hamilton for Affordable Housing Development
 - Lease of City-Owned Land

The presentation by Brian Sibley respecting a Proposal to Leverage Section 95 Properties to Create New Affordable Housing, was received.

That the presentation regarding the proposal to leverage Section 95 properties to create new affordable housing be referred to staff for a report to the Emergency & Community Services Committee.

- (ii) Sara Mayo, Social Planning and Research Council of Hamilton, and Tom Cooper, Hamilton Roundtable for Poverty Reduction respecting Vital Signs: Poverty and Employment Indicators (Item 8.4), to provide a summary of research and findings related to employment, youth and housing, and to address precarious employment, social assistance and living wage. (Added Item 4.1 and 4.2)

Sara Mayo, Social Planning and Research Council of Hamilton, and Tom Cooper, Hamilton Roundtable for Poverty Reduction, addressed Committee regarding Vital Signs: Poverty and Employment Indicators (Item 8.4), to provide a summary of research and findings related to employment, youth and housing; and to address precarious employment, social assistance and living wage. The presentation, entitled “Hamilton’s Vital Signs 2015 – Hamilton’s Economic Renaissance: A prosperity unevenly shared” included, but was not limited to, the following:

- City’s unemployment rate is improving
- Employment and Youth:
 - Teens in the lower city, many living in lowest income neighbourhoods, are far from main locations of teen jobs

- Employment rates are better measure of labour market health
- Housing:
 - Lowest income tenants pay the highest proportion of their household income on rent
 - Largest rent increases are in smallest, lowest priced units
 - Hamilton has lost about 1,000 primary market rental units since 2004, in large part due to condo-conversions
 - Rent increases in Hamilton are higher than other communities
- Social Assistance:
 - Social assistance caseloads still higher than before recession
 - Deep poverty experienced by people living on social assistance is a major barrier to transitioning back to employment
- Precarious Employment:
 - Impact of precarious employment on family life
- Policy Solutions – Vital Signs policy solutions drawn from Canadian “think tanks”:
 - Increased access to experiences and opportunities, especially for children and younger adults that help provide ladder into the middle-class
 - Modernization of Canada’s social safety net and employment support programs, including childcare and affordable housing, to reflect a changing labour market
 - Improving employment conditions and access to labour market information
 - Including through living wage jobs
 - Invitation to the City of Hamilton to become a living wage champion
- Living Wage – list of more than 30 local organizations who have stepped up and committed to paying staff a living wage

The presentation by Sara Mayo, Social Planning and Research Council of Hamilton, and Tom Cooper, Hamilton Roundtable for Poverty Reduction, addressed Committee regarding Vital Signs: Poverty and Employment Indicators (Item 8.4), to provide a summary of research and findings related to employment, youth and housing; and to address precarious employment, social assistance and living wage, was received.

The Report respecting Vital Signs: Poverty and Employment Indicators (CES16021/PED16129) (Item 8.4) was moved up in the agenda.
