Hi Ida,

I regret to inform you that I must relinquish my role and my participation with the Property Standards Committee.

I have truly enjoyed working with you and Lisa, and you both have taught me a great deal about not only being an effective Chair, but also on the complexities of Property Standards by-laws and application of same.

My reasons for leaving are that I have agreed to terms with a new employer (my competition ), and as such my responsibilities have increased accordingly. While it is nice to be wanted in the working world, I will miss my time with you both and the rest of the Committee Members.

I'm sure we will cross paths again in the future...

All the Best,

Daniel Rodrigues
