Council Direction:

Planning Committee at its meeting of February 28, 2012 directed staff to report back on the City of Hamilton Street Naming, Renaming, and Addressing Guidelines and Policies.

Information:

On March 9, 2005, Council approved the City of Hamilton Street Naming, Renaming and Addressing Guidelines and Policies. A copy of the 2005 staff report and procedures, guidelines and policies are included in Appendix "A". For information purposes Appendix "B" contains the current list of names of streets held for specified subdivision sites. Appendix "C" contains the current list of street names on reserve by developers and consultants for future use.

Local Street Naming Policies:

The Street Naming Policies, Guidelines and Procedures (page 6 – Appendix "A") shall apply to both public and private roadways, condominium roadways, where names are deemed necessary by the Director of Planning. City Council shall approve names on all new collector and arterial roadways, which names shall appear on the draft plan of subdivision submitted to Council for consideration. In addition, the City reserves the right to rename any street, including duplicate street names, in the interest of public safety and is not responsible or liable for any costs of the owner associated with street name changes.

When approving street names the Council approved policies require the selection of a street name to generally be in reference to people, groups, places, events and things related to the area, the City, and its citizens, including, but not limited to, native flora, fauna, and geographical features. Proponents shall give consideration to names of locally important families, war veterans, local heroes or historical places or events of significance. The names of living persons or companies used for the purpose of advertising shall not be permitted, unless by exception approved by Council.

In the case that the proponent, after all other considerations, requires a street be named after his/herself or in the essence or derivative or a corporate name; it should be known that any street for these purposes cannot intersect another property owner's lands or have frontage on municipally owned property. In addition, there shall be no use of awkward, corrupt, discriminatory or derogatory names, in regard to race, sex, colour, creed, political affiliation, or other social factors.

Local Street Naming Procedures:

The procedure for naming local streets begins with staff providing the proponent with a copy of the approved "Street Name List" and the "Street Naming Policies, Guidelines and Procedures". After receiving this information the proponent submits a list of street names and their locations on a reduced sized copy of the draft plan to Growth Management staff where it is encouraged that the street names be selected from the approved "Street Name List". Once staff receives requests for the naming of any street where the name does not appear on the approved "Street Name List" or is not part of a common obvious theme the proponent is required to fill out a "Street Name Request Form" (attached as Appendix "D") which includes the development name, company, proposed street names and description of their origin.

Upon receipt of the written request to approve the proposed street names staff circulates the proposed street names to all relevant departments and external agencies including MPAC, Canada Post and the Emergency Services Division (i.e. fire, police and ambulance). If the proposed street names are acceptable to all parties staff adds the proposed street names to the City's list of reserved/held street name directory for the use by the proponent of the street names on the draft plan of subdivision. If the proposed street names are not acceptable to any single party the proponent must submit alternative names for further review.

SUBJECT: City of Hamilton Street Naming, Renaming, and Addressing Guidelines and Policies (PD05059) (City Wide)

RECOMMENDATION:

That approval be given to establish and implement a new policy and procedures for street naming and street numbering of lands throughout the City of Hamilton, as set out in the City of Hamilton Street Naming Guidelines and Requirements; and City of Hamilton Municipal Addressing Policy; attached as Appendices "A" and "B" to Report PD05059.

Planning and Development Department

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY:

Prior to amalgamation, street naming, re-naming and numbering within the City was implemented through each municipality's own policies and guidelines. After an extensive review of these, a consolidated document incorporating best practices was developed. This report presents recommendations for Council's adoption of a new City-Wide consolidated set of procedures, guidelines and policies for the purpose of street naming, re-naming and numbering throughout the City of Hamilton. The new procedures, guidelines and policies are included in Appendix "A". Contained in Appendix "B" is the municipal addressing policy. For information purposes, Appendices "C" and "D" contain a list of pre-approved street names. Appendix "C" contains a list of names of streets reserved for specified subdivision sites. Appendix "D" is a list of street names held on reserve by developers and consultants for future use.

SUBJECT: City of Hamilton Street Naming, Renaming, and Addressing Guidelines and Policies (PD05059) (City Wide) - Page 2 of 12

BACKGROUND:

STREET NAMES

Prior to amalgamation, the former Region of Hamilton-Wentworth was responsible for the co-ordination of all new street names to avoid the creation of duplicate street names in the Region. Each former Area Municipality was responsible for the naming of streets within their jurisdiction. A comprehensive reserve list was compiled and is still in use today. The City of Hamilton continues to use a reserved street name list.

Each municipality had their own guidelines and policies for the naming of streets. For example, Ancaster's street naming policy prohibits the use of "advertising", and Dundas honoured their war heroes by selecting names from the Town's Cenotaph. The procedure for street naming within the former City of Hamilton was the same as the former Region.

MUNICIPAL ADDRESSING

The former municipalities had various guidelines and policies in place for municipal numbering. Some municipalities had procedures in written form and others did not.

The purpose of Appendix "B" is to have a Council approved set of policies for municipal numbering.

POLICIES:

The following summarizes the comprehensive list of policies to guide municipal street naming in the City of Hamilton being recommended:

- (a) That the City reserve its right to rename any street, including duplicate street names, in the interest of public safety.
- (b) That the selection of a street name should generally be in reference to people, groups, places, events and things related to the area, the City, and its citizens, including, but not limited to, native flora, fauna and geographical features.
- (c) That the owner/developer/applicant shall give consideration to names of locally important families, war veterans, local heroes or historical places or events of significance.
- (d) That names of living persons or companies used for the purpose of advertising shall not be permitted, unless by exception approved by Council.

SUBJECT: City of Hamilton Street Naming, Renaming, and Addressing Guidelines and Policies (PD05059) (City Wide) - Page 3 of 12

- (e) That in the case that an owner/developer/applicant, after all other considerations, requests a street be named after his/herself or in the essence or derivative of a corporate name; it should be known that any street for these purposes cannot intersect another property owner's lands or have frontage on municipally owned property.
- (f) That there shall be no use of awkward, corrupt, discriminatory or derogatory names, in regard to race, sex, colour, creed, political affiliation, or other social factors.
- (g) That the Street Naming Policies and Guidelines and Procedures shall apply to both public and private roadways, condominium roadways, where names are deemed necessary by the Director of Development and Real Estate.
- (h) That City Council shall approve names on all new collector and arterial roadways, which names shall appear on the draft plan of subdivision submitted to Council for consideration.
- (i) That the City of Hamilton shall not be responsible or liable for any costs of the owner associated with street name changes.

The following comprehensive list of policies to guide municipal addressing in the City of Hamilton is also being recommended:

- (a) That the intersection at King Street and James Street shall be deemed the Directional Starting Point for the purpose of municipal addressing on arterial and collector roads. The Directional Starting Point will be followed, where possible, and the streets will be numbered outwardly towards the City of Hamilton boundary.
- (b) That one address shall be assigned per legal lot of record, except where otherwise permitted in this policy.
- (c) That the addressing of local streets shall start from the Arterial, Collector, or closest major road.
- (d) That the right hand side of a street shall be assigned "EVEN" numbers (beginning with '4'), and the left side of the street shall be assigned "ODD" numbers (beginning with '3').
- (e) That a default space for numbering shall be incrementing odd or even numbers for every 6m of frontage, e.g. 4, 6, 8, 10, or 3, 5, 7, 9.
- (f) That an area with an established numbering pattern shall continue to use that numbering pattern.

SUBJECT: City of Hamilton Street Naming, Renaming, and Addressing Guidelines and Policies (PD05059) (City Wide) - Page 4 of 12

- (g) That Cul-de-sacs shall be addressed with the lowest numbers starting at the intersection; except that addressing shall be continuous when a "Court" and "Street" have the same name and intersect with each other.
- (h) That a municipal address shall be assigned to the legal lot frontage determined by the Zoning By-law on corner lots.
- (i) That more than one municipal address may be assigned for use by tenants or additional buildings erected on one parcel of land, if available, and without requiring a change to the addresses of adjacent properties.
- (j) It is not the policy to avoid any particular number for any reason (13, 44, 69, 666). It is the policy to assign "rounded-off" municipal numbers (50, 400, 555, and 1000).
- (k) That only whole numbers are to be assigned to establish a separate identity for each building. If necessary, and renumbering of surrounding buildings is not an option, ½ numbers shall be used. The use of letters for separate buildings shall not be used, i.e. 5A, 5B, 5C.
- (l) That addresses will not be assigned to vacant or severed lands until such time as an application for a building permit has been submitted or the conditions of the approved severance application have been completely fulfilled. In cases where the approval of a consent application creates a situation where the original address now falls out of sequence from the newly created lots, it will have to be renumbered through the "Change/Additional Address Request Form".

POLICIES AFFECTING PROPOSAL:

The proposal is to establish a comprehensive policy to guide Street Naming and Re-Naming and Municipal Addressing within the City of Hamilton.

CONSULTATION WITH RELEVANT DEPARTMENTS/AGENCIES:

The proposed Municipal Addressing, Naming and Renaming Guidelines and Policies have also been reviewed by Emergency Services, Legal Services Division, and Bell 911 Services. There have been no objections received.

SUBJECT: City of Hamilton Street Naming, Renaming, and Addressing Guidelines and Policies (PD05059) (City Wide) - Page 5 of 12

PUBLIC CONSULTATION:

Consultation discussions occurred with the Hamilton Halton Homebuilders Association Liaison Committee on November 5, 2004, about the policy and guidelines, and concurrence has been given.

CITY STRATEGIC COMMITMENT:

N/A.

COMMENTS:

Planning and Development staff contacted a number of municipalities, and had discussions with individuals responsible for municipal numbering and addressing in those cities. It was found that presently very few have a Municipal Numbering Policy or Street Naming Policy in place. Many more are planning to have a Municipal numbering and addressing policy in place by the end of the year.

CONCLUSION:

Based on the foregoing, the recommended Street Naming and Re-Naming Policies and associated procedures will allow street names to be consistently assigned throughout the City, and in a timely manner. The recommended Municipal Addressing Policy will create a standard process across the City of Hamilton for new municipal addresses.
