Reason(s) for delegation request: * I am concerned about the condition of city roads and streets. My own street is particularly bad, but the city has many streets in similar condition. My concern is the message this gives to potential residents and/or possible business enterprises that may be considering Hamilton as a viable alternative to Toronto or the GTA. The message is that the city is willing to let its road infrastructure crumble. I am not a complainer and I like living in Hamilton very much. The city is doing many things well. But restoration of city streets and roads now appears to be an overwhelming project. It seems a good time for the city to apply to the province for major infrastructure funding. Both Toronto and Mississauga are doing so or have done so on a scale large enough to make a difference. Thank you for your consideration, David Forsee
