

Terrapure Environmental

Stoney Creek Regional Facility –
Environmental Assessment Process

Blair Shoniker

City of Hamilton Planning Committee

September 20, 2016

EA Process

Key components of an EA include:

- Consultation with government agencies and the public
- Consideration and evaluation of alternatives
- Management of potential environmental effects

The full Individual EA process is the most rigorous and comprehensive process available

Alternative Design Footprints

Alternative Footprint #1

Proposed Residual Materials Area

Alternative Footprint #2

Proposed Residual Materials Area

Studies During EA

- The EA will address the following components of the environment:
  - Atmospheric (including air quality, odour & noise)
  - Geology & Hydrogeology
  - Surface Water
  - Terrestrial and Aquatic
  - Transportation
  - Land Use, Social and Economic
  - Technical (Site Design & Operation)
- Independent Expert Peer Review process – Dr. Kerry Rowe

ToR Outreach & Communication

- June 7 Notice of ToR Commencement & Public Open House – mail-out to 4,500 residences and advertisements in local paper
- June 21 Public Open House, attended by 53 individuals
- August Follow-up flyer to L8J postal code (6,000 residences)
- July/August (On-going) Meet with numerous local Stakeholders one-on-one
- September 8 Door hanger distribution to 800 nearby residences
- Website, toll-free number, social media

ToR Meetings

- Hamilton Conservation Authority
- 2 x Special CLC Meeting
- Government Review Team (GRT)
- Hamilton Wentworth District School Board
- Environment Hamilton
- Local resident and business-owner meetings
- 2 x City Staff

Anticipated Project Schedule

