Thanks for continuing to keep me informed during this process. I am however withdrawing my request as I have spoken to a city representative on the matter at hand it has been brought to my attention that this matter is really a collective bargaining issue amongst each bargaining unit within the city. Although I would like to continue to address this matter, it appears that appearing before this committee is not the approximate channel. Again, thanks for your attention on the matter.

Hello Nicholas,

On July 6, the Audit, Finance and Administration Committee, City of Hamilton approved your request to be a delegation at a future meeting and I wanted to touch base with you respecting that request. If you are still interested in appearing before the committee, please advise at your earliest.

For your information, the dates of the upcoming AF&A committee meetings are:

November 7 and 21

December 12

If you have any questions or concerns, please feel free to contact me.

Regards,

Judy Sheppard
