Dear Mayor Eisenberger and Councillors,

With Hamilton on the the cusp of a renewal like no other, I find it troubling that some on council are still employing divide and conquer strategies. At this critical time council should be engaged in a building up of our great city, not toiling around looking for cracks. The time to look at the bigger picture is now. With an approved provincially funded billion dollar investment for LRT on the B-Line at stake, do not flounder. Make the project as good as it can be. Stop detracting. Stop distraction. Stop the games.

I write today to reaffirm my support for LRT on the B-Line. For the good of our entire city, I urge you to support it aswell.

Best Regards,

David Colacci
