

MUNICIPAL / PROVINCIAL TOBACCO RETAILER LICENCE FEE SUMMARY

Canadian Cancer Society

December 10, 2015

The following lists annual tobacco retailer licence fees for municipalities in Ontario and in Alberta, as well as for the two provinces that have provincial tobacco retailer license fees. For some municipalities, there is also an initial application fee, in addition to annual fee requirements.

Ontario

$806	Ottawa
$649	Hamilton
$440	Sudbury
$330	Markham
$298	Vaughan
$285	Richmond Hill
$277	Mississauga
$267	Oakville
$251	Kingston
$215	Brampton
$188	Windsor
$172	Waterloo
$170	Burlington
$150	Wasaga Beach
$131	Halton Hills (Georgetown)
$100	Hawkesbury
$85	Chatham-Kent
$50	North Bay
$40	Cornwall
$36	Brockville

Alberta

$700	St. Albert
$450	Edmonton
$171	Calgary
$160	Hinton

Provincial

$50	New Brunswick
$42	Nova Scotia

Note: Municipal license fees may change quickly, normally with an increase. Most of the information in this compilation was compiled in September 2015. Added was the City of Ottawa license fee that will increase to $806 effective January 1, 2016.

On March 19, 2015, the Quebec fiscal commission, the Commission d'examen sur la fiscalité Québécoise, released its report that included a recommendation that a $250 per year licence fee be required for every tobacco retailer.