

PUBLIC LANEWAY INITIATIVE

This list includes more than 650 residents who have expressed their opposition to the proposed closure and sale of the Public Laneway. Some personal details have been redacted for privacy.

A subset of these people filled out official public consultation forms, signed them, and returned them to Marilyn Preston in Public Works before the deadline, August 4, 2016. That collection of responses from 209 people was recognized as a legal and valid petition by Legislative Clerk for the Public Works Committee, Lauri Leduc.
