Dear Ms. Kolar,

I am writing to tell you that I am resigning from my position as the Advisory Committee for Persons with Disabilities Committee. As you know, I have to take care of my granddaughter and I had started a Part time job for a few hours and this has caused my family to evaluate its priorities. Unfortunately, the demands of work and family mean that I no longer have the time to devote to attend meetings and participate in activities for the committee. I hope you understand. Please let me know when it should be My last day on the ACPD.

Apologize for any inconvenience that this may cause to you. I would be happy to devote some time over the next two weeks to transferring my responsibilities over to a replacement volunteer. If you would like to discuss this with me further, I hope you will contact me at [REDACTED] or email by [REDACTED]. I look forward hearing from you.

Serving on the ACPD Committee has been a great experience and I am happy to have had the opportunity to work with so many wonderful people in planning these events for our city. Thank you for your cooperation and patience with me at this time.

Yours sincerely,

Sylvia Soto
