It's time to renew your CAPG Membership!

View this email in your browserWELCOME TO 2019!It is almost time to renew your CAPG Membership for 2019*

Your 2019 Membership Form along with your 2019 Membership Benefits document are available that outline the extensive benefits of being a CAPG Member.

The Canadian Association of Police Governance is a strong, relevant national voice for civilian governance of policing. It works collaboratively and proactively with members and partners to enhance civilian governance of policing in Canada. The CAPG represents its members' views to the federal government, through members' resolutions and federal lobby days. It facilitates information exchange, education, and advocacy for municipal police governing bodies and First Nations police governing authorities.

The CAPG collaborates with other police services sector stakeholders across the nation, including police leaders, police sector associations, provincial, federal and municipal governments and their departments, police learning organizations, and business partners.

We look forward to partnering with you in 2019!

What Members are saying about CAPG

CAPG is a strong, relevant national voice for civilian governance of policing. It works collaboratively and proactively with members and partners to enhance civilian governance of policing in Canada. The CAPG represents its members' views to the federal government, through members' resolutions and federal lobby days. It facilitates information exchange, education and advocacy for municipal police governing bodies and First Nations police governing authorities.

A significant recent CAPG initiative, for example, is the development of the CAPG First Nations Police Governance Council which should have an impact on the shaping of a new First Nations Policing Program in collaboration with Public Safety Canada.

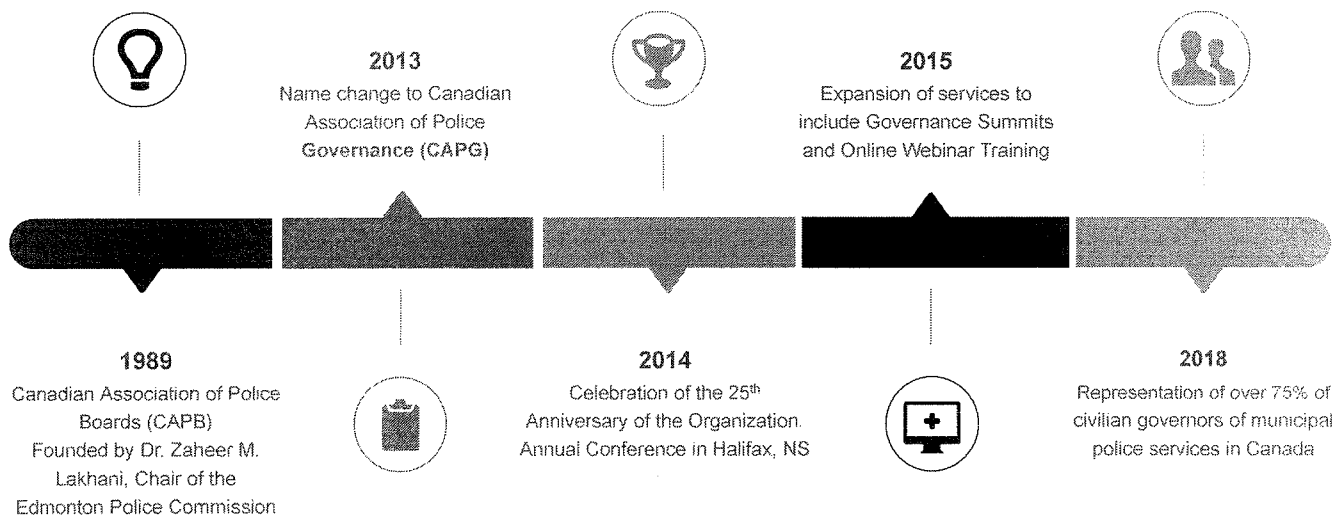

The CAPG collaborates with other police services sector stakeholders across the nation, including police leaders, police sector associations, provincial, federal and municipal governments and their departments, police learning organizations, and business partners.

The Vancouver Police Board has been a member of the CAPG since its inception. Our Board members derive significant value from the various CAPG services. I believe CAPG is the collective voice of its members and partners in Ottawa on policing and public safety.

Barj Dhahan, Vancouver Police Board, Past CAPG Board Member

A Brief History

Core Values

Mission

The Canadian Association of Police Governance works collaboratively and proactively with members and partners to enhance civilian governance of policing in Canada.

Vision

The Canadian Association of Police Governance is a strong, national voice and resource for civilian governance of policing in Canada.

Strategic Directions

Updated at the CAPG Board Retreat in 2015

INFORM

Ensure members have independent access to the information and insights needed to be effective as police governance organizations.

CONNECT

Bring members and partners together on a regular basis to share knowledge and develop deeper connections.

FOCUS

Articulate a common national voice on priority issues in police governance and community safety, and advocate for change.

BUILD

Stimulate thought leadership and contribute to evidence-based research and initiatives that fill gaps in our current knowledge on police governance.

The CAPG will:

- 1 collect, assemble, synthesize, and disseminate best practices as a tool kit/resources for members;
- 2 convene groups to knowledge share and build common perspectives on civilian governance;
- 3 be a national voice to influence public policy on civilian governance of policing and community safety;
- 4 partner with thought-leaders to further the discussion on emerging evidence-based community safety and policing issues.
