

CITY OF HAMILTON

NOTICE OF MOTION

Healthy and Safe Communities Committee

DATE: June 25, 2018

MOVED BY COUNCILLOR T. JACKSON.....

Funding Requests from Agencies

WHEREAS, the City of Hamilton provides funding to hundreds of partner agencies and organizations across Hamilton; and

WHEREAS, these community partners provide a variety of health and human services including recreation programs, child care, shelter services, emergency food services, home visiting, housing supports and other community based services; and

WHEREAS, over the past few months a number of these community agencies and organizations have approached the City of Hamilton for increased or one-time funding; and,

WHEREAS, there has been no formal process developed to evaluate these requests for new funding;

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED:

That staff report back to a future Healthy and Safe Communities Committee with an analysis of the underlying causes for the current funding challenges experienced by our partner agencies and organizations and provide some potential actions that can be taken by the City directly or through advocacy with the provincial and federal governments to support the future sustainability of these agencies and organizations.
