

HARRC

HAMILTON ANTI-RACISM RESOURCE CENTRE

CALL FOR BOARD MEMBERS

Are you passionate about anti-racism?

We are recruiting for community leaders who will have an opportunity to play a leadership role in building an organization focused on this important work.

The Hamilton Anti-Racism Resource Centre (HARRC) will promote a sense of belonging for racialized people in Hamilton. Individuals impacted by racism and other forms of race related oppression can access information, support and resources.

A Community Advisory Panel (CAP) is actively recruiting candidates for HARRC's inaugural board of directors to recommend to the Hamilton City Council for final approval. If you live or work in Hamilton and are a passionate community leader, please consider applying for this opportunity.

Please submit a resume and cover letter articulating why you are interested in this role to empowerstrategygroup2@gmail.com by 5pm on Friday, December 4, 2020.

For more information about HARRC or to review the full board posting, please visit:

www.hamilton.ca/Anti-Racism

