

City of Hamilton Presents:

The Advisory Committee for Persons with Disabilities' Accessibility Fair 2022

"Ability First"

Come and join us on October 5th, 2022 on the City Hall Forecourt for an interactive experience for all, no matter your abilities.

Home IDPWD About Us Where Participants Contact Us

About Us

Edit Site Edit Stats

What Is The ACPD?

The ACPD stands for the Advisory Committee for Persons with Disabilities.

What Does The ACPD Do?

The Advisory Committee for Person with Disabilities recommends to the City of Hamilton policy, procedure and standards that address the needs and concerns of all disabilities. Our task is to identify barriers in municipal programs and try to prevent new barriers from being created in accordance with the ODA (Ontarians with Disabilities Act) and the AODA (Accessibility for Ontarians with Disabilities Act) in matters of Customer Service, Employment, Transportation, Design of Public Spaces and Information and Communication.

Who Is The ACPD?

The Advisory Committee for Persons with Disabilities is comprised of citizens of the City of Hamilton with a diverse range of disabilities that strive to consider the needs of all in order to make this city a more equitable, diverse and inclusive place to live.

International Day for Persons with Disabilities December 03, 2020

International Day for Persons with Disabilities December 3rd, 2021

For More Information Please Visit the ACPD Page on the Hamilton.ca Website

ACPD @ Hamilton.ca

Home IDPWD About Us Where Participants Contact Us

City of Hamilton's ACPD Logo

Website Powered by WordPress.com.