

Properties within the shaded area below were identified as being connected to the combined sewer causing the spill.

