Mayor Eisenberger called the meeting to order and recognized that Council is meeting on the traditional territories of the Erie, Neutral, HuronWendat, Haudenosaunee and Mississaugas. This land is covered by the Dish with One Spoon Wampum Belt Covenant, which was an agreement between the Haudenosaunee and Anishinaabek to share and care for the resources around the Great Lakes. It was further acknowledged that this land is covered by the Between the Lakes Purchase, 1792, between the Crown and the Mississaugas of the Credit First Nation. The City of Hamilton is home to many Indigenous people from across Turtle Island (North America) and it was recognized that we must do more to learn about the rich history of this land so that we can better understand our roles as residents, neighbours, partners and caretakers.

CEREMONIAL ACTIVITIES

3.1 Yom HaShoah Commemoration, Hamilton Jewish Federation

The name of the day commemorating the victims of the Holocaust is “Yom HaShoah”, literally the “Day of Remembrance of the Holocaust and the Heroism”. It is marked a week after the seventh day of Passover, and a week before Yom HaZikaron, the Memorial Day for Israel’s fallen soldiers.

The date was selected by the Israeli Parliament on April 12, 1951. The full name became formal in a law that was enacted on August 19, 1953. Although the date was established by the Israeli government, it has become a day commemorated by Jewish communities and individuals worldwide.

In the early 1950s, education about the Holocaust emphasized the suffering inflicted on millions of European Jews by the Nazis. Surveys conducted in the late 1950s indicated that young Israelis did not sympathize with the victims of the Holocaust, since they believed that European Jews were “led like sheep for slaughter.” The Israeli educational curriculum began to shift the emphasis to documenting how Jews resisted their Nazi tormentors through “passive resistance” retaining their human dignity in the most unbearable conditions, and by “active resistance,” fighting the Nazis in the ghettos and joining underground partisans who battled the Third Reich in its occupied countries.

Now Yom HaShoah occurs one week away from Yom Ha’atzmaut, Israel’s Independence Day, and nothing could more profoundly capture the fundamental relationship of Holocaust and Israel than that positioning. The State of Israel is not a reward or a product or an exchange for the Holocaust; it is a response. The Jewish people responded to the total assault of death by an incredible outpouring of life. The survivors came and rebuilt their lives. Jewish life was made precious again.

Nadia Rosa who was born in Bratislava, Czechoslovakia and as a child, was sent with her mother to Theresienstadt concentration camp, and she came to Canada in 1968, addressed Council.
