Notice of Intention to Designate 7 Rolph Street, Dundas (Mushroom / Lennard House)

The City of Hamilton intends to designate 7 Rolph Street, Dundas, under Section 29 of the Ontario Heritage Act, as being a property of cultural heritage value.

Statement of Cultural Heritage Value or Interest

The property at 7 Rolph Street, Dundas, known as the Mushroom / Lennard House, displays a high degree of craftsmanship and technical achievement as a rare example of a dodecagon (twelve-sided) contemporary dwelling, and is believed to be the only pedestaled dodecagon dwelling in Canada. The two-storey cedar board clad cantilever pedestal form frame dodecagon was designed by Harry Lennard and constructed in 1971. The property has historical and associative value due to its connections with the Lennard and Clark families. The Lennard / Mushroom House is considered to be an important landmark that defines the character of its surrounding area. Its unique 'mushroom' shape is linked to the historic evolution of Dundas' residential landscape in the twentieth century, with its design showcasing changes in late twentieth-century architectural trends. The property's wooded character also maintains and supports surrounding natural features like Sydenham Creek.

The Statement of Cultural Heritage Value or Interest, Description of Heritage Attributes and supporting Cultural Heritage Assessment may be found online via www.hamilton.ca or viewed at the Office of the City Clerk, 71 Main Street West, 1st Floor, Hamilton, Ontario, L8P 4Y5, during regular business hours.

Any person may, within 30 days after the date of the publication of the Notice, serve written notice of their objections to the proposed designation, together with a statement for the objection and relevant facts, on the City Clerk at the Office of the City Clerk.

Dated at Hamilton, this 5th day of September, 2024.

STATEMENT OF CULTURAL HERITAGE VALUE OR INTEREST AND DESCRIPTION OF HERITAGE ATTRIBUTES

The 0.145-hectare property municipally addressed as 7 Rolph Street, Dundas, known as the Lennard House or Mushroom House, is comprised of a two-storey steel and wood frame pedestal dwelling built in 1971. It is located on the north side of Rolph Street, near the intersection of Rolph Street and Parkside Avenue, in the community of Dundas, in the City of Hamilton.

Statement of Cultural Heritage Value or Interest

The property at 7 Rolph Street, Dundas has physical value and displays a high degree of craftsmanship and technical achievement as a rare example of a dodecagon (twelve-sided) contemporary dwelling. The two-storey cedar board clad cantilever pedestal form frame dodecagon was designed in 1969 and constructed in 1971 and is the only documented example of either a pedestal or dodecagon dwelling in Hamilton, is also a rare example of a dodecagon dwelling in Canada, and it is believed to be the only pedestaled dodecagon dwelling in Canada.

The property has historical and associative value due to its connections with the Lennard family, including Samuel Bertram Lennard (Bert) and Gladys Louisa McInnis Lennard, Harry Lennard a notable architect, and Hugh and Marjorie Clark. The dwelling at 7 Rolph Street was designed by Harry Lennard for his parents Bert (1905-1981) and Gladys Lennard (1906-1989) in 1969 and was completed in 1971. During his life Bertram was employed by the historic Dundas apparel business S. Lennard & Sons Ltd., founded by his grandfather in 1879. Throughout his architectural career Harry Lennard has played important roles in the construction of major landmarks, including the theatre complex then known as Hamilton Place now named First Ontario Concert and the restoration of St. James Anglican Church in Dundas. In 1989 the property was sold to Marjorie Hawkins Clark (1928-2007) and Hugh Clark (1932-2018). Hugh Clark was a notable Hamiltonian and businessman with a strong interest in local philanthropy, founding the Clark Family Foundation and the Marjorie Hawkins Clark Fund.

The Lennard / Mushroom House is considered to be an important landmark in its immediate residential landscape, and the property is important in defining the character of its surrounding area. The dwelling’s unique ‘mushroom’ shape stands out in the surrounding historic and post-war residential landscape and is linked to the historic evolution of Dundas' residential landscape in the twentieth century, with its design showcasing changes in values and trends in the early contemporary period. The wooded character of the property also maintains and supports surrounding natural features like the Sydenham Creek.
