Subject: Hamilton urban boundary

Hello

My name is Victoria Collins and I am a lifelong Hamiltonian. I am deeply concerned about the expansion of the urban boundary and urge you not to let it happen. What makes Hamilton great is the balance between our city and our natural wildlife. We cannot afford to shrink the already shrinking greenbelt. I urge you not to allow the urban boundary to expand. There are plenty of properties within the Hamilton borders that can be used for housing (especially affordable housing). Hamilton has always been a town for the working class. Don't let it become a town for rich developers.

Kindness,

Victoria Collins
