Strong Mayor Powers and How They Apply to the City of Hamilton Property Tax Budget Process – REVISED

WHEREAS, several City Councillors have expressed frustration of being hamstrung, rushed, and stifled amid a new interpretation of Strong Mayor Powers pertaining to the 2025 Property Tax Budget process whereby only amending motions to the budget were permitted instead of debate and direction on the budget as a whole and the associated property tax increase;

WHEREAS, the majority of amending motions brought forward by Councillors were jointly deemed out of order by the City Clerk and Budget Chair amid the new Strong Mayor Powers budget process, without any opportunity for neutral, apolitical, procedural collaboration to make changes to said amending motions so as to make them in order;

WHEREAS, for successful amending motions to actually be enacted, they were ultimately subject to, and at the mercy of, the Strong Mayor Powers veto, regardless if the veto was used or not used;

WHEREAS, during deliberations of the 2024 Property Tax Budget, the first budget process against the backdrop of Strong Mayor Powers that were extended to the City of Hamilton on July 1, 2023, the budget was not considered “the Mayor’s budget”, and accordingly, Councillors were able to propose germane amendments to the budget and motions to direct staff accordingly to amend the proposed property tax increase without the risk of said amendments or motions being jointly deemed to be out of order by the City Clerk and the Budget Chair;

WHEREAS, the 2025 Property Tax Budget was deemed “adopted” by the Mayor outside of any Council meeting negating Councillors the opportunity to go on the record of either voting in favour or against the 2025 Property Tax Budget, something that has historically been deemed important by Councillors and constituents alike;

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED

- (a) That the Mayor ask the Ontario Premier to not allow the City of Hamilton to use Strong Mayor Powers for the City of Hamilton budget process, reverting to the traditional budget deliberation process that was most recently used for the 2024 Property Tax Budget during the first year of Strong Mayor Powers in Hamilton;
- (b) That the Mayor and City of Hamilton staff involved with interpreting and applying the rubric of Strong Mayor Powers to the 2025 Property Tax Budget process ask the Office of the Premier of Ontario to review said interpretation and application of Strong Mayor Powers as they pertained to the 2025 Property Tax Budget process and to comment on if they believe it was done properly and appropriately, and whether there may have been different interpretations and applications; and,
- (c) That the City of Hamilton Finance and Legal staff research and report back on how other municipalities that have Strong Mayor Powers applied the Strong Mayor Powers to their budget process, if at all.
