Subject: RE: June 25 vote on two land speculator attempts to expand Hamilton's urban boundary

External Email: Use caution with links and attachments

Dear councillors and city staff,

Just a quick email to affirm my support for a firm urban boundary ahead of the vote on June 25th. We are in a climate emergency, and protection of our wetlands and farmland are more important than ever before. We have SO MUCH land within the city's boundaries that can be and should be used to build new housing. Hamilton cannot afford the infrastructure costs to expand and it's imperative we make decisions that don't increase climate damage.

Thanks,
Suzanne Zandbergen
