Subject: Affordable Housing

Hi there, I hope this finds you well.

I understand that affordable housing cannot be made available without a push from us all towards infilling, specifically in underused locations or parking lots.

As we have learned, Doug Ford's idea of sprawl (with or without our municipal consent) degrades our city's infrastructure and sense of community.

Making the city of Hamilton friendly for singles and families alike within city limits builds a stronger foundation for all our city residents, and ensures vibrant and welcoming communities.

We can lean into this platform with better cooperation from home builders and each other.

Please make it your priority to reinvigorate our city centres.

Sincerely,

Jennifer Sanges
