Subject: Regarding proposed changes to City of Hamilton's Media Policy

To whom it may concern,

I'd like to make it known that I, Daniel Penn (director of Happening Hamilton), would like to make sure that the Hamilton City Hall continues to become a place where everyone is welcome. As a director of an independent media source we should be able to educate the public with what is going on in our city. Hamilton is a wondrous city with a decadent past and strong future and I truly believe that the independent media will have a large importance on how the city will be viewed from others across Canada and the world.

We would appreciate to be added to the agenda of the next council meeting as official correspondence.

Thank you,

Daniel Penn
