Our names are Brodie Caverhill and Gabriel Cicchi and we are coordinating a Hamilton-wide competition through the DeGroot School of Business at McMaster University. The program is recognized as High School Business Heroes and targets teenage students in their senior years at secondary school. They are presented a case challenge based on a main sponsor and asked to create a marketing strategy. A report would then be compiled of primary and secondary research to support their approach. The top teams would be selected to present their findings and pitch to a panel of judges on April 28. We kindly ask if we could recognize the top three participants and give a brief recap of the competition.
