ANALYSIS / RATIONALE FOR RECOMMENDATION)

Since its inception in 2007 by Council, the Hamilton Youth Advisory Committee (HYAC) continues to make noteworthy strides, not only as an advisory committee, but also as a conduit between other youth and youth organizations in the community.

Members of HYAC made history in 2012 by hosting this City's first ever Youth Week Hamilton celebration! Youth Week Hamilton provided opportunities for youth to network city-wide with other youth and adult allies. While YWH '12 helped to raise the committee's public profile, it also helped to highlight the value this community places on young people, a demographic that makes up 14% of the overall Hamilton population. Recruitment of additional new members wrapped-up in June 2012 and in September, HYAC's membership grew to 26 members.

HYAC members supported and continued to participate in community initiatives such as:

- Unfilteredfacts Summit 2012: HYAC members attended the "Soundtrack for Change", that featured youth artists, arts-based programming, youth facilitators, school sharing/networking, and tons of fun! The Summit armed participants with information and tools they need to tackle youth health issues in their school community.
- 'CBC Hamilton's Town Hall Event, Mental Health 101: Youth and the Hidden Crisis in our Community': Members of HYAC collaborated with CBC producer Karin Chykaliuk and reporter Samantha Craggs, on the topic and on the town hall itself. Open to the public, this town hall examined the hidden crisis of youth mental health in our community. Attendees heard from young people and their parents, youth counsellors, health care professionals, educators, and the police. They shared their personal stories, discussed ways to break down the stigma of mental illness, and suggest solutions for change.
- Recruitment of new HYAC Members: In May and June, new member recruitment took place and 17 new members joined the group. Currently there are 26 members. September and October meetings included orientation and team building activities.
- 'The 5th Annual ChangeTheWorld - Ontario Youth Volunteer Challenge'. HYAC members, along with over 1,300 other Hamilton youth surpassed Volunteer Hamilton's goal of 3,000 community hours by over 7,000 hours!
- 'Moving Forward: Navigating Your Own Success', The Hamilton Children's Aid Society conference, March 13th 2012: HYAC facilitated a workshop for youth ages 13-18 in care of the CAS on Self-advocacy & Social Responsibility. Participants received 6 'keys' during the presentation that included key points about, Self-advocacy, Social Responsibility, Self-determination, The Power of Persistence, Who's in Control, and Success.

- Leadership Quest V: An initiative of Hamilton Public Health Services (PHS), is a unique hands-on experiential learning opportunity that goes above and beyond traditional classroom walls. This event took place March 10-12, and was held at Medeba Adventure Camp in Haliburton Ontario. Two HYAC members were able to attend.

The 2012 approved budget is $3,890. This funding was used for meeting expenses, orientation of newly appointed advisory committee members, volunteer recognition, communication and other expenses related to the work of HYAC. The newly formed committee will continue to familiarize itself with the City of Hamilton and local government, as well as identify priorities and initiatives they wish to focus on until the next term. One such initiative HYAC plans to work on is the second annual Youth Week Hamilton celebration. As Hamilton is home to 72,575 youth, 14% of the overall Hamilton population, HYAC recognizes the need to connect youth city-wide. Youth Week Hamilton (YWH) aims to recognize the positive contributions youth make in their communities and celebrate the valuable work youth and youth organizations do year round. YWH also aims to highlight issues that are important to young people while encouraging action and dialogue.

ALTERNATIVES FOR CONSIDERATION

If HYAC's budget is not approved in its entirety, the committee may have to adjust their planned activities for 2013.
