Dear Clerk and City of Hamilton Council Members

Our family has been members of the Trinity Canadian Reformed Church of Glanbrook since its institution in August 2001. In our early stages of a congregation we rented from various local churches in the Binbrook area and we are currently worshipping in what was previously a school building which has been renovated by the congregation for our purposes. . During the time since 2001 our congregation has almost doubled in size, a wonderful blessing.

We are excited about the possibility of being able to purchase lands on which we may build our own church building. The location of the Tisdale Road property is also a central location to our current members.

We wish you the best as you make your decisions, and wish you the Lord's blessings in 2014.

Regards,

Frank Schuurman
