To Whom It May Concern

We are the owners of the above mentioned property for the past 12 years.

We are in support of the AEGD and have a large North American client very interested in relocating into the area. Time is of the essence. They are currently in Hamilton on a smaller site and wish to take up to 40 acres. They are also looking into Brantford and London but prefer Hamilton Airport Area for access.

They would like to start development by year's end with hopes of moving in by summer 2015.

If you have any questions or concerns please direct enquires to

To Whom to may concern;

We are the owners of the property at 9322 Dickenson Road...approximately 45 acres.

We are in support of the AEGD in Hamilton.

We have a large prospective international client looking to relocate into this area.

There are other options available for them outside of Hamilton.

If this process is not expedited we fear we will miss out on this excellent opportunity for everyone involved.
